Thursday 20th February 2020

Longest serving staff farewell and building naming ceremony

The Papua New Guinea National Research Institute is pleased to inform and invite the media to be part of a rare occasion to be held tomorrow.

The event is to farewell PNG NRI's longest serving staff, Mrs Jennifer Parina, who faithfully served the institute for 40 years, and the naming of one of the institute's building after her.

The highlight of the event will be the unveiling of a plaque in front of the building to honour Mrs Parina's faithful service to the institute, followed by the farewell function.

Date: Friday 21 February 2020

Time: 1pm – 4pm

Venue: PNG NRI Coffee Shop

To confirm your attendance or for enquiries, please contact Communications Unit Leader Samuel Kehatsin on Tel: 326 0300 or email: Samuel.Kehatsin@pngnri.org.
