

THE NATIONAL RESEARCH INSTITUTE
PAPUA NEW GUINEA

POSITION VACANCY

Senior Research Fellow - Property Sector Development Program

The country's leading Think Tank, the Papua New Guinea National Research Institute (PNG NRI), is seeking a highly motivated, purpose-driven and results-oriented individual to fill the position advertised.

Qualifications and Relevant Experience required:

- PhD in Economics, Estate Management, Land Administration or other social sciences from a recognised university.
- For applicants that have PhD but not in social sciences, they must have experience of at least three to five years in conducting research on issues associated with land and housing in a developing country, especially Papua New Guinea.
- Have interest in conducting research in one or more of the following subjects: land administration, land use policy, housing policy, land use planning, and resource management.
- Five-years work experience in a research institute or university environment.
- Conduct research and manage research projects.
- Supervise, collaborate and manage junior research staff

For eligibility criteria and Job Description, kindly call the HR Section on Tel: 326 0300/0061 or email HR@pngnri.org for assistance.

- Applications must address the key requirements of the position descriptions.
- The application form must be submitted together with a cover letter, updated CV, certified certificates, and academic transcripts.
- All applications should be addressed to: PNG National Research Institute, P.O Box 5854, Boroko, NCD; Attention: Recruitment.
- Applications can be emailed to: HR@pngnri.org or hand delivered at the Reception Area, Thomas Webster Research Building, PNG NRI Campus, Goro-Kaega Roundabout, Opposite Nature Park.

Note:

For those who have applied for this position already, no need to apply again.

Application closes at 4:06 pm on Friday 02nd August 2019

Authorised by: Dr Osborne Sanida
Director, PNG NRI

inquire inform influence